

In order to help developing the road technology worldwide, promoting the execution of studies and research, from different scientific perspectives, in terms of Roads to encourage innovation in the sector, the Spanish Road Association Foundation (FAEC) announces the Fourth Edition of the "International Juan Antonio Fernández del Campo Award for Road Innovation" 2011-2012.

The initiative is sponsored by Banco Caminos, Cepsa and Repsol-Proas, the institutional collaboration of the General Directorate of Highways of the Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure of the Community of Madrid and the business collaboration Dragados, Oficemen (Spanish Cement Manufacturers Group), Acciona Infraestructuras, Eiffage Infraestructuras, Euroconsult, FCC, Ferrovial Agroman, Isolux Group, OHL and Sacyr.

To download terms and conditions, please click HERE

